Teen Summer Library Program (ages 12-18)

June 11 – August 11, 2007

- REGISTER: Sign up at the 2nd Floor Reference Desk.
Open to anyone ages 12 - 18.
- READ: Read 3 books or 6 magazines and record the titles on your reading record.
- REWARD: Bring your reading record to the 2nd Floor desk and choose a reward.
Books, videos, bakery bucks & gift certificates to the Friends of the Library book sale are some of the choices.
- REPEAT: Read another 3 books or 6 magazines, fill out a new reading record, and stop in for another reward.
- RELAX: Attend the programs, participate in the Book Blog, and don't miss the Grand Finale party!
- RETURN: Be sure to attend the Grand Finale Party on August 20th. Each reading record you turn in will be entered into the Grand Prize Drawing for an iPod Shuffle and other great prizes from local businesses.

Anytime Activities

Teen Read '07 Book Blog

All day, every day! Log on and join in the Teen Book Blog with teens from all over South Central Library System. Once you have registered, you can read and post comments about many different titles. All discussions are led by SCLS librarians. Go to <http://teenread07.scls.info> to sign up, read & post to the blog.

Who's That Hero?

Superhero, that is. Stop at the Reference Desk to pick up a blank puzzle. Match the outlines on the puzzle to the super heroes on the bulletin board in the YA area and turn in for a prize.

Take A Clue, Leave A Clue

Fill out a bookmark reviewing a mysterious book you enjoyed reading and we'll put it on display in the YA area. Be sure to take a look at what other teens have reviewed if you need an idea for a book to read!

You Never Know...Summer Programs for Teens

Bring a friend to a program and you will both receive a reward for attending – passes for extra computer time on the Library's computers!

All programs take place in the Carnegie Room of the library and snacks are provided.
