HELP YOUR LIBRARY CONTINUE TO GROW

People like you helped to add an addition to the original 1908 Carnegie Library in 1990, remodel the Mezzanine in 2006, and update the Children's Room in 2008.

OUR LIBRARY TELLS A LOT ABOUT OUR COMMUNITY

Stoughton Public Library welcomed over 160,000 visits in 2008 and patrons checked out over 271,000 items. The library is open 6 days each week for a total of 64 hours each week. That means there were 48 people in the door and 81 items checked out each open hour of 2008! These numbers steadily increase every year.

MANY WAYS OF GIVING

Some examples of the types of gifts that support your library are:

- Monetary donations
- Securities or property for immediate or future use
- Bequest in your will or living trust
